

ANNEXURE A – experience and legal knowledge in matters as set out in section 7(2)€ of the Legal Practice Act

As chairperson of Advocates for Transformation she has been heavily involved in the provisioning of legal services and promoting access to justice. In doing so we have entered into agreements with attorneys to brief black junior advocates.

She has been a member of the Bar Council of the Johannesburg Society of Advocates for many years and is actively involved in legal training through advocacy training and the pupillage committee, through the High Court Committee, she was involved in civil and criminal proceedings and the functioning of the courts and tribunals in general.

She also has experience in competition law and also holds certification in competition law from the Law Society of the Northern Provinces and in consumer affairs.